Marriage Moment

You can easily turn off your beloved by letting the TV or the computer trump your spouse as your companion of choice. Yes, you can watch a favorite program together, but beware of TV or videos stealing time from playing together. During this time go for walks with your family, Play games get to know your family, help with school work teach your children to help out around the house with things like laundry, cooking, the house this will help them. Say the rosary prays together. This will help you out during these trying times.

In Times of Grief

St. Paul reminds us in his letter to the Romans of many comforting words. During times of loss, loneliness and grief, we may not feel or recognize God's presence in our lives. Though we can't imagine all the thoughts and feelings you are experiencing right now, we do understand a bit about grieving and that, above all, it is a process. The Office of Family Life Ministries offers a free bereavement packet of materials designed to provide support, especially during the initial stages of grief. For a bereavement packet, call 716-847-2210 or email familylife@buffalodiocese.org.
