St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish Picnic – August 30th.

We have received a VERY generous offer to have the parish picnic catered, thereby eliminating the need to request donations.

Menu items will include Potato Salad, Macaroni Salad, Macaroni and Cheese and Baked Beans. The food will be prepared and delivered to the church by Pat Tripp, Catering Service. SEAS will provide hot dogs and hamburgers, drinks, and desserts. Volunteers are needed to help with setup and clean up. Please sign up as soon as possible, so we know how many people to expect. We will provide servers with masks and gloves to comply with Covid-19 restrictions.

With Covid-19 restrictions still in place, we expect all attendees to be prepared to social distance and wear masks when socializing with other parishioners. The 11:00 a.m. Mass will take place outside and concelebrated by Fr. Walter, Fr. Peter and Fr. Tom. Please bring a lawn chair.

Sign-ups are encouraged

Resumen del Boletín

La semana pasada, hemos colectado $4,068.51 por apoyar nuestra parroquia y $1,050.00 por los sacerdotes retirados. ¡Gracias por su generosidad!

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Picnic Parroquial para celebrar nuestro aniversario estará domingo el 30 de agosto a las 11. La misa estará afuera atrás de la iglesia. La misa estará una celebración bilingüe y este día no tendremos una misa en español a las 2:30 p.m. Todos vamos a la misa de 11 am para festejar juntos nuestra parroquia.

Gracias a una donación de dinero muy generosa, no estamos buscando más donaciones de comida. Queremos identificar algunos voluntarios para ayudar con la instilación y la limpieza. Seguiremos todas las regulaciones del estado que apliquen durante este tiempo de coronavirus. Si puede ayudar como voluntario, avisa el Padre Peter el más pronto posible. (716) 836-0011 x 126

The 2020 Census is critical

Where there are more people, there are more needs – for new schools, new roads, and services for families, older adults, and children. We must make sure that you and everyone in your community are counted in the 2020 Census. Results of this count will inform how hundreds of billions of dollars in federal funding are distributed for important programs and services every year for the next 10 years. The time is now. Don't risk losing critical benefits and don't wait to be counted! Respond today at <https://2020census.gov>.

Blessed in Suffering

Philip Simmons, a professor of English at Lake Forest College in Illinois, was diagnosed with ALS, Lou Gehrig's disease, in 1993. Simmons was 35 years old, a young husband and father. Suddenly, he had to learn what it means to die. In the year 2000, he published a book, Learning to Fall: The Blessings of An Imperfect Life. Here are some words he wrote: "We have all heard poems, songs, and prayers that exhort us to see God in a blade of grass, a drop of dew, a child's eyes, or the petals of a flower. Now when I hear such things, I say that's too easy. "Simmons went on to explain that our "greater challenge is to see God not only in the eyes of the suffering child but in the suffering itself." As examples, he wrote, "To thank God for broken bones and broken hearts, for everything that opens us to the mystery of our humanness." He continued: The challenge is to stand at the sink with your hands in the dishwasher, fuming over a quarrel with your spouse, children at your back clamoring for attention, the radio blating the bad news from Bosnia, and to say "God is here, now, in this room, here in this dishwasher, in this dirty spoon." Don't talk to me about flowers and sunshine and waterfalls: this is the ground, here, now, in all that is ordinary and imperfect, this is the ground in which life sows the seeds of our fulfillment. The imperfect is our paradise.
